

Staffordshire Terrier Club of America

Membership Application, 2009 (Revised November 2008)

The Staffordshire Terrier Club of America (STCA) is a member of the American Kennel Club (AKC) and is the authorized Parent Club for the breed of the American Staffordshire Terrier (AST). The object of this Club shall be the breeding of purebred dogs, to develop and bring to perfection their naturally high qualities, to support AKC Dog Shows and Events, to emphasize the value of pure breeding, to encourage registration of AKC eligible dogs, to create appreciation on the part of the public of the value of purebred dogs, to foster and maintain among ourselves a warm friendship and the highest standards of sportsmanship. No person who has been found guilty of animal abuse or who supports dog fighting can become or remain a member of the STCA. For additional membership information please refer to the STCA Constitution and Bylaws at <http://amstaff.org/documents/constitution.pdf> or write the STCA Secretary for a copy.
